U. S. BLOCKS PACKERS' MERGER

SERVES NOTICE AMALGAMATION IS NOT LEGAL

Government Declares Proposed Plan Would Stifle Competition.

HEARING ON APRIL 2

Secretary of Agriculture To Review Evidence and Hear Packers

Washington, Feb. 26.—The first move on the part of the United States government to prevent the merger of the great Armour and Morris packing interests was taken today when Secretary of Agriculture Wallace served formal notice on both companies that the amalgamation would be in violation of the packers and stock yards act because it would "stifle competition" and "create a combination in restraint of trade."

Wallace said he had learned that the Armour and Morris companies had entered into a tentative agreement for combine of their properties, but that the merger is not formally consummated.

He held that the merger of these companies would be a possible step to the amalgamation of all the so-called "big five" packers.

Will Hold Hearing

Wallace will hold a hearing here on April 2 to review the evidence against the proposed combine and to hear the case of the packers.

At the conclusion of this hearing, if the evidence warrants, he has authority under the law to issue an order against the Armour and Morris Companies to "cease and desist" in the merger project.

The packers would then have the right to appeal from Wallace's decision to the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

A fine of from $500 to $10,000 for each day's violation of the order and imprisonment up to five years is provided after the final decision of the federal court.

Preliminary complaint filed by Sec- retary Wallace today that J. Ogden Armour, acting for the Armour corporation, contracted with Morris and Company to acquire all the assets of Morris and company.

Eliminate Morris

It is charged that this transaction "provides for the entire elimination of Morris and Company from the meat packing field and constitutes a violation of the packers and stock yards act in that the acquisition by the Armour interests of Morris and company, including the capital stock or business of other corporations owned by Morris and Company, and the acquisition of the stock of Armour and Company of Delaware by Morris and company on the other hand, constitutes a restraint of interstate commerce and creates or tends to create a monopoly in many sections and communities of the United States and foreign countries in the purchase of live stock and the sale of live stock products."

Swift, Armour and Morris are the largest of the big five packers, Wallace said. "There corporations kill sixty per cent of the inspected slaughter in the United States and they dominate the principal markets."

"My position is that should any two of these packers be brought together in a single corporation, competition would be lessened and a monopoly created."

"Merger of Armour and Morris would be the first step in the violation of the principle of the law, for it would tend to restrict competition."

The consideration of the purchase of the Morris interests by Armour was given at $10,000,000 in cash, $10,000,000 in preferred stock and $10,000,000 in common stock of Armour and Company, of Illinois, and Delaware.

INVESTIGATE WRECK SUNDAY-50 INJURED

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Investigation was being made today of a wreck yesterday here when a man was killed and 50 persons injured, four seriously. A Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee train crashed into a northwestern "L" train. The train crews blamed the dense fog.

JUMP FROM FIRE FATAL TO MOTHER

New York, Feb. 26.—Trapped in her apartment on the third floor of a burning west side tenement early today while flames roared through the rooms cutting off every means of exit, Mrs. John Healy threw her twin babies, from a window and jumped after them.

The mother and one baby died instantly. The other child is not expected to live.

Healy, who followed his wife in her leap, is suffering from internal injuries which probably will prove fatal.

The flames walled off tenants on upper floors from escape.

The flames were crowded with screaming people.

Ladders were run up and the tenants removed to safety. Two firemen were painfully burned in rescue work.

BANK PRESIDENT
HELD IN THEFT

Frank L. Taylor

Frank L. Taylor, $50-a-week President of the First National Bank of Warren, Massachusetts, is under arrest in Chicago, charged with embezzling $209,000 of the bank's funds. He declares he was the dupe of Joseph B. Marcino, former Chicago barber, who came from Italy in the steerage only a few years ago and got to be a second Ponzi.

TWO NOTORIOUS GANGSTERS ARE NABBED BY COPS

"Big Frank" Berger Wanted for Murder Shot and

house in West Philadelphia, police early today shot and killed "Big Frank" Berger, alias Moore, 38, said to be wanted in Pittsburgh on a murder charge, and wounded and captured John Doyle, a local gangster, said to be the slayer of Tommy Loftus, underworld character.

A tip that the men were hiding at the house resulted in a squad of plain clothesmen being sent to arrest the suspects. Scouting carefully the police discovered the place was almost an arsenal with Springfield rifles and automatic pistols in abundance. Reinforcements were sent for, and at 1 o'clock the front and rear doors were smashed in at the same minute. Doyle and Frank, automatics in both hands, blazed away, retreating slowly up the stairs.

Pictures fell shattered, window-crashed and plaster spattered in white puffs. "Big Frank" attempting to escape by the porch roof, was instantly killed by a waiting blue coat outside. Doyle for a time barricaded himself in a room, firing through the door, but this was smashed in, and he surrendered but not in time to avoid being knocked unconscious by a blow from a blackjack. Two girls in the house were taken to police station.

ITALY IS SEEKING U. S. FINANCIAL AID

Rome, Feb. 26.—E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the U. S. Steel Corporation, held a conference here today with Premier Benito Mussolini, regarding possible participation by American capital in the economic restoration of Italy. In building up her factories and her foreign trade.

Engineers representing the U. S. Steel Corporation are looking into Italian projects for public works, including new construction in the Naples harbor.

EVANGELIST DIES.

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 26.—The Rev. Joseph F. Spitzer, Evangelist of Evansville, Ind., was found dead in bed at the home of Rev. George Studebaker today, a few hours after he had preached an evangelistic sermon on "The Hour of Judgement." Heart disease was the cause of the death.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 26.—A two-story brick and stone dwelling occupied for a number of years by the parents of Charles, Daniel and Gustave Frohman, New York theatrical men, was wrecked by a gas explosion early today. Mrs. Mary Nash, who conducted a rooming house on the first floor, escaped with slight injuries.

John Moore, of Republic, O., a roomer, was so badly injured that he was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital. His wife was also slightly injured. George Holzhauser, with his wife and two children who lived upstairs, were slightly hurt.

Whether natural or sewer gas caused the explosion has not been determined.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE OFFICIAL AND PROHIBITION OFFICER ARE ARRESTED ON SERIOUS CHARGES

WOODEN LEG IS
CAUSE OF BREAK

Cincinnati, Feb. 26.—Breaking a wooden leg because of a wooden one is the experience of John Delaney, 35 years old, who was taken to a hospital here yesterday. Delaney stepped out of his automobile and his artificial left limb slipped, causing him to fall. The impact fractured his right leg. At the hospital he told physicians that a fall three years ago had led to amputation of the left leg.

HARVEY SPEECH CHEERS BRITISH AS AID IS SEEN

Believe U. S. May Enter
European Affairs Before
End of the Year

London, Feb. 26.—British newspapers today took heart from the Saturday night speech of George Harvey, American ambassador, that the United States may enter European affairs before the end of the present year.

The papers professed to see additional evidence in support of this opinion in the proposal of President Harding that the United States join the permanent court of International Justice and the arbitration established under the League of Nations.

Ambassador Harvey had extolled the growing warmth of Anglo-American relations and said he believed the United States eventually "would have to come into European affairs."

Coming so close upon the heels of Premier Bonar Law's prediction of an Anglo-American accord, belief was strengthened not only in Great Britain but throughout Europe that the foundations are being laid for an agreement, perhaps a definite treaty of alliance, between Great Britain and the United States. Such a treaty, it is understood would bind not only Britain but the whole British empire, being signed by representatives of the component commonwealths.

HORSE KILLED IN FALL WHEN FORCED OFF ROAD BY AUTO

A horse belonging to Troy Green, colored, of near Lumberton was killed when it fell in a ditch on Home Avenue Saturday night after being forced off the road by the driver of an automobile who did not stop after the accident.

Green and his wife were driving east on the street when, according to the story they told police, the machine approached them on the wrong side of the street. Although Green said he pulled his vehicle to the side of the road to avoid the automobile, the car did not veer its course, and the horse slid off the road into the ditch sustaining a broken hip, from which it died.

Neither Green nor his wife, who were occupants of the buggy, were hurt. Police were unable to find a trace of the motorist.

GAS EXPLOSION WRECKS DWELLING

Sandusky, O., Feb. 26.—A two-story brick and stone dwelling occupied for a number of years by the parents of Charles, Daniel and Gustave Frohman, New York theatrical men, was wrecked by a gas explosion early today. Mrs. Mary Nash, who conducted a rooming house on the first floor, escaped with slight injuries.

PLAGUES RAVAGING DETENTION CAMPS WHERE GREEKS HELD

Typhus and Smallpox Play
Havoc With Prisoners
In Turkey.

Constantinople, Feb. 26.—Scores of Greek Christian and Ottoman refugees in the detention camp at Scutari are dying daily in the plagues of typhus and smallpox which are ravaging the fugitives. Two hundred and ninety-seven refugees died in this camp within the past seven days.

All of the fugitives gathered at Scutari were transported from Trebizond where they had been concentrated from the interior of Anatolia.

According to the Near East Relief Administration 20,000 refugees are in the camp living in filthy stables and barracks.

General Harrington, commander of the British troops in Constantinople sent a party to investigate. The investigation reported that conditions were fully as bad as had been pictured.

The Near East Relief Administration is rushing medicines and food stuffs.

GOVERNOR PARKER TO SPEAK.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Governor John Parker, of Louisiana, who instituted the Mer Rouge Ku Klux Klan Inquiry, will be the principal speaker tonight at the first of a series of anti-klan mass meetings to be given in the coliseum. The meetings will be under auspices of the American Unity Committee.

Word was received that many irregular soldiers were contemplating giving up their arms but this was followed by another dispatch saying that the woman, urged on by Miss MacSwiney, were demanding that the men fight to the bitter end.

So far no reply has been received to the appeals which Miss Mary MacSwiney sent to Pope Pius XI in Rome in behalf of her sister Annie who has been on hunger strike for eleven days. Mary asserted that Roman Catholic priests have refused to administer Sacrament to her sister.

COLLISION FATAL TO TWO.

Toledo, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Emma Orvis and Arthur E. Lankineau were killed when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a streetcar here.

SEEK BODY OF GIRL THOUGHT MURDERED: POLICE HOLD MAN

Six-Year-Old Philadelphia Lass Missing; Sister Aged Four Tells of Abduction and Identifies Their Assailant.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 26.—The creeks and sewers of the congested northeast district of this city are today being searched by 300 police and many citizens in an effort to locate the body of six-year-old Lillian Gilmore, kidnapped, brutally assaulted, and thrown from a motor car late Saturday night.

Wylie F. Morgan, 39, who was dramatically identified as a suspect in the crime by Lillian's four-year-old sister, Dorothy, who was also abducted by the kidnaper, was subjected to a severe cross examination at detective headquarters early today but his answers were evasive.

Morgan, according to police, was arrested following a house-to-house canvass of the section where the crime occurred, and was found to have blood stained clothing in his room. Shortly after his arrest, Dorothy Gilmore identified him from among a group of 35 plain clothes policemen.

"Lilly's dead, the bad man killed her," burst from the child's lips in response to questions. Shuddering with terror the little girl told how the car had been stopped on a lonely road near some icy spot and Lillian apparently attacked and then hurried from the car.

Letters were found on Morgan showing that he comes from Maumee, Texas.

PRESIDENT WILL TAKE TWO ISSUES TO PEOPLE IN NEXT FEW MONTHS

World Court Plan and Ship Subsidy Bill Will Be Brought Out in "Swing" if Congress Fails To Settle Them.

Washington, Feb. 26.—President Harding requested the Senate to sanction American participation in the permanent court of international justice, organized by the League of Nations, only after inquiry had developed the futility of America's trying to promote a separate court, entirely disassociated from the league, it was stated officially here today.

Secretary of State Hughes believes the United States must either adhere to the league court under the reservations he proposed, or be put in the position of abandoning the settlement of international disputes by judicial methods, so long advocated by American statesmen.

Washington, Feb. 26.—President Harding plans to take two issues "to the people" between March and December if the now dying 67th Congress fails to settle them.

One is the ship subsidy program, now waterlogged and about to sink because the Senate insists upon talking, not voting on it.

The other is the proposition that the United States shall adhere to the world court of justice set up under the League of Nations, upon which it appeared unlikely today any definite action can be taken before the expiration of the present Congress six days hence.

Steubenville, O., Feb. 26.—Two suspects in the attempted hold-up of the Peoples National Bank at Mt. Pleasant near here Saturday morning were arrested last night by Sheriff Edward Lucas at Piney Fork, a mining town near Mt. Pleasant. The men held in the county jail here are Dominic Mastracci 30 and Luigi Gorciuti, 26, both miners.

Word from Mount Gilead, Morrow County, informed local authorities that three others have been picked up there on suspicion making in all five suspects held for the attempt to hold up.

The arrest of the two Piney Fork men by Sheriff Lucas was made after information was furnished about two men acting suspiciously. They were heavily armed, a gun and stiletto.

According to the Near East Relief Administration 20,000 refugees are in the camp living in filthy stables and barracks.

General Harrington, commander of the British troops in Constantinople sent a party to investigate. The investigation reported that conditions were fully as bad as had been pictured.

The condition of Assistant Cashier Harry E. Price who is confined to a Wheeling hospital was reported slightly changed for the better this morning although he is still in a critical condition.

The suspects arrested at Mt. Gilead, Ohio, gave their names as Mr. and Mrs. Earl Connor and Raymond Payne. Mt. Gilead authorities heard of the attempt hold up by wireless, the news being broadcast together with a description of the bandits.

Doubt is expressed that the United States would be welcomed into the court on the terms outlined by Secretary Hughes. Europe, it is pointed out, would have everything to gain and nothing to lose by an American adhesion; and the league, it is generally agreed, would be glad to give the American government a voice in the election of judges. The state department, according to the prevailing belief, has received informal but unquestionable assurances which practically guarantee the acceptance of the Hughes plan for American participation in case the approval of the senate can be obtained.

Action Causes Comment.

Considerable comment has been caused by the president's action in asking the advice and consent of the senate before initiating formal negotiations looking toward American admission to the protocol and statute establishing the court. While quite in accordance with the constitution and without precedent, the president's move is interpreted as indicating unusual consideration for the prerogatives of the senate in the conduct of foreign relations.</

"I'll stand by Tanlac to the very last," declared Mr. Bramble, "for it has helped me back on my feet and I am feeling like a new man now. I had suffered from stomach trouble for two years and was in an awful run-down condition. My appetite went back on me and when I did eat a little something I would suffer pain and misery for hours. My nerves were all out of fix. I would lie awake tossing and rolling until almost daybreak and I felt weak and tired all the time. I had no energy to do anything and just felt any way but right. "Well, I just kept on losing weight and getting worse until I concluded to try Tanlac, and that was the wisest decision I ever made. It's the only medicine I ever saw that does all they say it will. I now eat three hearty meals a day and never feel a touch of indigestion, and my appetite was never better, even when I was a school boy. My sleep is sound and restful and I get up mornings feeling refreshed and fine. My weight has increased and I have been built up until I ever felt better in my life. If anybody doubts this statement just let them see me."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold. adv

ACROSS THE YEARS.

It was not easy to be the first President of the United States. Nor is it easy to be the twenty-ninth President. There must be hours when President Harding, brooding over the problems of today, looks from the White House windows across to Virginia where Washington sleeps at Mount Vernon and compares the problems of the first President with his own. There are times when the troubles of an older America touch hands across the years with those of an infant America.

After all, how strangely alike are those troubles! The problems of Woodrow Wilson and Warren Harding are much the same as those of George Washington. The twenty-ninth President's troubles with the Senate are not new; the first President had them. He was forced to make compromises, many of them, even as Harding is forced. There are spoilsmen now; there were plenty of them then.

Now the American Legion demands a bonus and other considerations; then it was the Society of the Cincinnati demanding place and power. In 1794 Washington put down the "Whisky Rebellion" in 1923 the Nation is trying to make "whisky" a forgotten word in America.

There were Borahs and Brookharts and La Follettes in those far-off days. Our radicals now beat their breasts and denounce Wall Street, Big Business and the "invisible government;" then they saw the threat of monarchy and autocracy in every act of the new state.

Then, as now, the world was in a cycle of wars. The French Revolution was tearing the old order apart in Europe even as the great war, the Red Commune and the proletarian tides are shaking things today. Then, as now, the Old World was a lure and a threat.

Harding's inaugural was the signal of American withdrawal from Old World affairs. Washington's proclamation of April 22, 1793, was the signal then. That withdrawal endured for better than a century; how long the retreat of today will last no wise man or soothsayer can foretell.—Public Ledger.

THE "PEACE" OF VERSAILLES IN EUROPE.

Irving Brant, writing in the St. Louis Star, of which he is the editor, calls attention to the fact that the "secret treaties," the existence of which made the proceedings of the Versailles conference a farce, were published in full in the New York Evening Post during the winter of 1917-18. On August 19, 1919, President Wilson told Senator Borah at the celebrated White House conference that the provisions of the secret treaties were for the first time disclosed to him after he went to Paris late in 1918. The territorial divisions at Paris followed so far as was practicable at the time for provisions of these secrets. Commenting upon this Mr. Brant says: "The United States is paying the penalty in mortification, and the world in suffering and danger, for the ignorance in which the American people were kept during the war. The newspapers were both the cause and the victims of our national psychology, which demanded that all minds conform to an official standard. Officialdom is merely running true to its standards when it tries to suppress facts, but newspapers are false to their life principle when they join the conspiracy. Throughout the war, the newspapers of America were agents of propaganda. They were moved by high purposes; they felt themselves consecrated to a patriotic endeavor. But propaganda in the name of patriotism differs from other propaganda not a particle, when measured by the results ensuing from the suppression of the truth. The penalty for suppressing the secret treaties was the peace of Versailles and the penalty for the peace of Versailles is all about us."

ANNEXATION PLOT CHARGED BY RHINELAND PRESIDENT.

Charges that France was working actively a year ago for the occupation of the Ruhr and the annexation of the Rhineland are contained in an article in the Boersen Zeitung. The article is over the signature of Dr. Gruetzner, President of Rhenish Prussia, who on Sunday was arrested and ordered deported from occupied territory for having written an "impudent" letter to General Beaussain, Belgian commander at Duisburg. The article previously was published in several Rhineland newspapers.

"The cat has been let out of the bag," Dr. Gruetzner concludes his article, citing alleged written and oral evidence to the effect that the beginning of last year Heer Smith, the Rhineland separatist leader, conducted direct negotiations with the French at Dusseldorf.

One of the conferees at that time, says Dr. Gruetzner, was the representative of the French Foreign Office. The article adds that the question of partial occupation of the Ruhr, as well as propaganda having occupation as its object was discussed at the time. One of the "German" participants in the negotiations told Gruetzner of the conference at the end of last December. Gruetzner alleges that "it cost me 20,000 marks."

Dr. Gruetzner asserts "Germany's ostensible 'default'" on the delivery of reparations coal, which dates back only to January, 1923 "is only a pretext to cloak the plan for political possession of the Rhineland, which had already been decided upon a year previously."

COLORED HAIR POWDER

Several letters have reached me recently asking directions for making colored hair powder to use between shampoo times on oily hair. As we all know to our sorrow, powdering with ordinary white powder will take up and lift all the muscles of the face, so the sagging will disappear, since all of your muscles will have become firm.

In addition to this massage, all the muscles under the chin and around the throat, making strokes with the palm of the hand. Begin these the superfluous oil from the hair and leave it dry and fluffy, but it will also leave it very dusty in appearance. No amount of brushing will bring back the gloss it had before, or that it should have after a shampoo.

If very coarse corn meal can be used it would be a greater improvement. I once suggested sifting coarse yellow corn meal through a cloth or shaking it up in a bag, so that a lot of the fine white dust escapes. The coarser particles can be used, but even this is not wholly satisfactory.

The best thing is to make a shampoo powder the color of your hair. To do this take a quantity of ordinary white laundry starch and, if your hair is very dark, melt it in cold coffee as strong and black as you can make it. Stir this about, pour off the liquid when it has settled and let the starch dry, finally crumbling it through linen or silk to get powder that is free of lumps. The coffee smell can be eliminated by mixing in a bit of sachet powder. Powder for a lighter shade hair should be made with less strong coffee.

For a pale or blonde hair, use strong tea instead of coffee. When this sort of powder is brushed through the hair and brushed and shaken out, it will not leave it with that dusty appearance. The "gloss" can be restored by putting a big piece of absorbent cotton over the brush and giving the hair a final thorough going over with this. This is a good "stunt" to know and one which few beauty shops utilize. If you have a hair drier at home, or a blower attached to a vacuum cleaner, you can blow out most of the shampoo powder.

Interested Reader:—At 17 years of age with a height of five feet you are slightly overweight at 115 pounds. Possibly this condition, and a little sagging of your muscles, tends to the double chin appearance. At your age nothing could be easier to correct. A tonic will build you strokes at the base of the throat and then stroke upward from throat to the tip of the chin, always taking care to use pressure with palm as if you were ironing. Never make any downward strokes as the idea is to lift the muscles of the throat and chin.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made

Here's an easy way to save $2, add just have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, and the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Today's Talk

BE HAPPY.

After Walt Whitman's death, there was found among his papers an undated scrap with these words in his own handwriting: "A Poem—Theme—Be Happy, Going forth, seeing all the beautiful perfect things."

I can see in my imagination that quaint figure, with its whimsical smile, journeying from Brooklyn, New York, to Central Park—now walking, now riding, now engaged in talking with some policeman or some wayfarer.

I see him at another time sitting on a ferry boat talking with some chance acquaintance and learning always something new, something beautiful from some seemingly unlovely life.

For no matter where Walt Whitman went, he sought to draw out something that he might later shape up and present to the world. And so his theme of life was to go forth to be happy and to make others happy—to see "all the beautiful perfect things."

In his famous work "Leaves of Grass" appears this sentence: "In me the caresser of life wherever moving."

It sounds very trite and platitude to say: "Be Happy!" And yet that is exactly what we must say to ourselves and impress upon our minds as a positive command if we would disarm half our foes in advance.

I passed a person on the street to day whose face depressed me for a moment because of its cold, unhappy cast. One does not have to have a smile on his face all the time in order to be happy. Happiness is most of the time a very serious affair.

But the person who is happy lends a look to the outer world that is unmistakable.

Be happy!

Why not?

KING TUT'S TOMB RE-SEALED UNTIL EARLY NEXT FALL

Luzor, Egypt, Feb. 26.—Tons of limestone today were dumped over the 3,000 year old tomb of Tutankhamen, in the Valley of the Kings, to protect it until the Egyptologists open it some time next autumn.

Sluice gates have been installed to prevent water from entering the tomb and ruining the antique relics in event of a cloudburst during the rainy season.

Throughout the summer Egyptian military police will stand guard before the ancient burial shrine to protect it from grave robbers or from those who would destroy the mummy to prevent the "sacrilege of public exhibition."

Lord Carnarvon and Howard Carter, chiefs of the exploration party, which found the tomb, have not made definite plans but it is believed they will reopen the tomb at the end of October. In the meantime an agreement will have been reached with the Egyptian government as to the final disposition of the body.

WRONGED WIFE SAYS SHE WILL BE FREED

New York, Feb. 26.—"I did right when I killed my sister. And I know no jury will convict me after they hear my story—my life, my sister's life, my husband's life and my family's life."

Such was the declaration of Mrs. Minnie Reisler, wife of "John, the Barber," the fight promoter, who killed her young, pretty sister, Bertha Katz, last July. It was the first time she has talked. She will be put on trial on March 5.

District Attorney Dodd intimated that she, her two sons, Morris and George, and her brother, Max Katz, all of whom are implicated in the killing, may be permitted to plead guilty to a lesser degree of murder. It was reported they will seek to avoid trial on a first degree murder indictment. The murder took place in a bedroom. Mrs. Jennie Katz, mother of Mrs. Reisler and the slain girl, witnessed the killing. Five shots were fired by Mrs. Reisler, who accused her young sister of supplanting her in her husband's affections.

ROBER SUSPECT HELD.

Cambridge, O., Feb. 26.—Charged with shooting Charles Moss, paymaster for the Akron Coal company, in a holdup, Andy Vesosky, a miner, is in jail here. The holdup occurred in the hills. Moss, who was shot in the arm, will recover. A satchel containing $16,000, taken by the robber, was found by a posse near the scene of the robbery.

EAST HIGH LOSES 46 to 32

East High School basketball team lost to the Columbus Hi-Y team at Columbus Saturday night by the score of 46 to 32 after having defeated the Columbus team on the Xenia floor 30 to 24 just a short time ago.

Coach Harris' lads had only just arrived home from a strenuous trip when they were called upon to defend their reputation against the Columbus five, one of the best teams the locals have played this season. The teams were fairly evenly matched in the first half, which ended 25 to 22 in favor of Columbus, but the tire-some trip told on the East High athletes in the second period, and they quickly dropped behind.

Porter, at forward, was practically the whole scoring noise for the Xenia pastimers registering nine field goals

Parks and Ostend and Whitacker starred for Columbus. The lineup and summary:

EAST HAS POOR TRIP By Wones.

East High School did not have much success on its basketball tour, winning one game and dropping two contests both of which were hard fought games. The locals lost their first game to Winchester High of Kentucky by an 18 to 11 score. The East boys were decidedly off form in this game, their password and basket shooting being poor. Porter who has been starring for the Market street boys in the past game was watched very closely and the result was that he only caged the ball once.

In the second game of the tour the East High five lost another heart-breaking contest to Paris High of Kentucky by a 17 to 12 score. The locals should have won this game but the referee called fouls on the locals and this decided the game in favor of the Paris quintet. The game was a tightly contested one, an overtime period being used to decide the winner and during the extra five minutes fouls were called on Taylor and J. Ware giving Helvie, the foul shooter on the Paris High team, seven chances from the free throw line. He made good four out of the seven attempts. The East High School team were leading at the end of the first half by a 6 to 5 score, Porter and D. Ware were the mainstays for the East High boys in this game, turning in three and two baskets respectively while the rest of the team's share of the work.

The East High School had little difficulty in defeating the Lexington High five, the locals winning handily by a 16 to 6 score. They exhibited their best form in this game and if they had displayed the same kind of a game in the other two contests there would have probably been a different story to tell. Porter again was the stellar performer while J. Ware, D. Ware and Taylor also exhibited a good brand of ball, the work of J. Ware at guard went a long way

BY WONES.

Three games were played at the East High gym Friday night. In the first game the East High Defenders swamped Jamestown Tigers by a 30 to 3 score. The Defenders showed fine form and connected with the net quite often while their defense was too tight for the Jamestown lads. C. Perry and L. Corbett were the stars for the locals with five and six field goals to their credit. Lineup and summary:

East High Defenders (30)

Jamestown Tigers (3)

Corbett C. Cousins

Douglas L.L. Bell

Fennells R.G. Tibbles

Field Goals: C. Perry 5, Baldwin 2, Corbett 6, Douglas 2, Lomax 1. Fouls

Lomax 1. Referee Rachford.

The second game brought together the East High girls and Linden Center Y. W. C. A. of Dayton, the former winning by a 14 to 5 score.

The first half was closely played and at the end of the first 15 minutes of play the locals were leading 5 to 4.

In the second session Ward connected with the net three times and a field goal by Ashbury and a foul spelled defeat for the Linden Centers.

Lineup and summary:

East High (14) Linden Centers (5)

Garrett L.G. Young

Field Goals: Ward 3, Ashbury 2, Johnson 1. Fouls—Ashbury 4, Green 2, Johnson 1. Referee: Rachford.

In the final game the East High School second team defeated Dayton Troop 50 to 17 in a tightly contested game. The Dayton quintet was leading the locals 13 to 11 at the end of the first half but in the second period the locals came back strong and scored 10 points while the Dayton gang annexed 4. The password and basket shooting of both teams was brilliant and kept the fans on edge all the way. Ross and Raymond were the stars for the locals while Hargrave was the big noise for Troop 30. Lineup and summary:

HEAVY COURT MENU TUESDAY.

Xenia basketball fans will have their last opportunity to see the Famous Autos in action against an opponent in one of their regularly scheduled games Tuesday evening, when Coach Hallers' outfit clashes with the Witte Reliabiles at the Central High Court.

The Autos have been furnishing Xenia fans with the best brand of basketball they have had the opportunity to witness for some time, and while they have not been overwhelmed with patronage, they have done much to raise the standard of independent ball here and to popularize high class sport.

The Witte Reliabiles of Dayton, are said to be worthy opponents of the crack local team. The Gem City five, playing under the name of the Dayton Marlions. Write Ottis Dunn, 517 Harrison St., Piqua, O.

FRENCH ADVANCE IN TWO SECTORS DURING SUNDAY

Paris, Feb. 26.—Within a month the political and civil administrations of the Rhineland and the Ruhr will be taken over by the Franco-Belgian forces.

News that this grave step is to be taken leaked out from semi-official quarters here, but caused little excitement. The majority of well informed Frenchmen have long been expectant that necessity would force the French to take over the local governments of the occupied regions.

The plan which will be put into force, beginning at Essen, Duesseldorf and other centers, will be gradually extended to the entire Rhineland. It includes:

First—The appointment of allied "civil administrators," who will replace the mayors and other civil government officials. The local councils will remain, provided they do not impede the work of the new organizations.

Second—The collection of all taxes, federal, provincial and city, the surplus of which will be confiscated by the allies, to be applied on reparations.

Third—The complete seizure of all railroads, including local lines.

Fourth—Allied control of all banks, financial institutions, posts, telegraphs and telephones.

The Franco-Belgians are now studying the project of founding a "high Rhineland commission," composed of prominent Germans, like Dr. Dörten, who favor the establishment of a Rhenish-Westphalian republic. This commission would work under a "supreme administrator," chosen by the allies, who would probably be a French general, whose functions would be similar to those of Marshal Lyautey, governor general of the French protectorate in Morocco.

It was announced that the territory between the three circular bridge-heads—Mayence, Coblenz and Cologne—have been occupied by the French. This action was taken by the occupation forces to make the collection of customs a more simple process, and also to facilitate the control of the railways. An elaborate system of customs offices has been established to allow purchasers of German goods to pay the 10 per cent export tax in cases where the German manufacturers refuse.

It is stated that France and Belgium are prepared to evacuate the Ruhr on the condition that Germany reforms her finances and accepts the proposition of a "guarantee committee" or other allied control, and agrees to continue the payments of reparations in kind.

A Cold Today

Back to work
tomorrow

If you've got a grippie cold—take Hill's Cascara Brome Quinine and feel fit for work tomorrow.

Colds lower vitality, weaken resistance to disease and undermine health.

At the first indication of a cold, get busy. Ask your druggist for Hill's famous remedy. You will get quick relief and break your cold in 24 hours, la grippe in 3 days.

Hill's cured your cold when you were a child. The formula has never been changed.

Stylistes BY LENORE

In the early fashion exhibits in Paris many of the afternoon dresses favor wool tapestry embroidered bands as well-known couturiers as Premet and Bernard. Other outstanding features are tailleur with short coats, paletoats, and straight or flaring knee-length coats, with skirts of comfortable walking length. Skirts frequently display one-side effects and many of the afternoon dresses command interest for their circular treatment or pleatings.

A gown that is typical of the lines favored by smart women is illustrated today. It proves the prestige of black in the face of the vivid colorings advanced in the newest fabrics. The material chosen is flat crepe, with brilliant hue embroidered in silver for the band which supports the drapery of the skirt at the side. There is another such band on the opposite side in the front, but the skirt is plain. An effective touch is gained by the cartridge pleating of the sleeves.

AARON CRITES, 83, DIES ON MONDAY

Aaron Crites, 83, pioneer resident of Spring Valley, and well known man in that vicinity, died at his home Monday morning at three o'clock. Death resulted from infirmities of age.

Mr. Crites was born in West Virginia, February 23, 1840, and had resided in the vicinity of Spring Valley since a young man. His first marriage was to Miss Margaret Babcock, of that village, who died in February, 1887, his second marriage to Miss Mary Thomas of Spring Valley taking place several years later. Two children were born to the first marriage, William E. Crites of Spring Valley, and Mrs. T. M. Scarff, also of Spring Valley. Mrs. Crites also survives. Mrs. Rebecca Gretzinger, of this city, and several other brothers and sisters, who reside in other states, also survive.

Mr. Crites was a member of the Methodist Church of Spring Valley. Funeral services will be conducted Thursday, the time and place to be announced later.

KLAN PRESENTS PURSE OF $200 TO OHIO CHURCH

Columbus, Feb. 26.—Five hooded figures wearing Ku Klux Klan regalia last night quietly entered and walked down the aisle of the Broad street Church of Christ, and presented the pastor, Rev. C. O. Woodward, with a purse containing $261, an American flag, and a basket of carnations.

Rev. Woodward is the Columbus minister whose address before the Springfield Klan February 12 was the subject of considerable controversy during the court proceedings against W. M. Cortner, alleged organizer.

Shortly after the appearance of the klansmen in the church, a fiery cross was burned in a field in the south side. The number of masked men gathered around the burning cross was variously estimated at from 50 to 500. Before police arrived the citizens of the invisible empire had dispersed.

"Tonight's demonstration was entirely unexpected," Rev. Woodward said. "I feel greatly honored by it. I am not seeking notoriety, but only trying to do my duty to preserve American ideals," he concluded.

HOSPITALS OF NEW YORK ARE CROWDED

New York, Feb. 26.—With her hospitals crowded by "flu" and pneumonia cases, and fuel scarcer than at any previous period during the season New York is bending every effort on this second day of her armistice with winter to bring large loads of coal across the ice encumbered reaches of the Hudson river from New Jersey to build up a reserve supply against a possible return of cold weather.

Never before in the history of the city have hospitals been as overcrowded. Officials attribute this largely to the severe weather and shortage of fuel, in addition to a great many accidents cases due to ice covered pavements and slippery streets.

TURK EXTREMISTS NOW IN CONTROL

Constantinople, Feb. 26.—The extremist faction in the Turkish national assembly has gained the ascendancy for the time being, frustrating an attempt by Ismet Pasha and Mustapha Kemal Pasha to have the Lausanne peace treaty ratified said advices from the capital today.

While a definite vote upon the treaty has not been taken, a canvass among members of the assembly shows there is strong sentiment in favor of rejection of the treaty. In the debate allusions were made to the refusal of the United States senate to ratify the treaty of Versailles.

Soaps and Brushes

Bathing and the proper care of the skin bear directly on the question of health. Indeed, the supplies and accessories for your bathroom should be selected with just as much thought and care as those which go into the kitchen.

More and more people are learning this truth every day, and are finding that it pays to have the right soap or the right brush for each particular function in the daily duty of cleanliness.

Selecting "the right kind" is easy at THE REXALL STORE because we are always glad to assist you, and we carry an unusually varied and complete line of soaps, brushes, talcums, sponges and other bathing needs. Let us show them to you.

TRIANGLE SERVICES OPEN SUNDAY NIGHT WITH BIG AUDIENCE

The Triangle service opened with a large crowd, which taxed the auditorium of the Reformed Church, when Rev. R. E. Stewart, singer-evangelist, delivered a sermon on "Some Serious Facts About Revivals."

Some folks are afraid of revivals, but every age in the past has been placed in position for advancement by a revival of some sort," he said. "Revival is bringing back to life that which has begun to die."

Every time that Israel forgot God, God sent them a revival in the form of a new leader.

Mr. Stewart took several of the leaders of the Old Treatment and showed how they were the revivalists of that day. Samuel, Elijah, Jeremiah. He then parenthetically interjected several pages from his evangelistic biography concerning the opposition to revivals as being of satan, and that opposition was a good sign that something was going to be done. He pointed out also how all the great denominations were the outgrowth of revivals.

"You folks object to revivals, that the converts don't hold out! Consider business failures; not all the grain planted grows, or takes root. You say that there is too much excitement. How about baseball and foot ball and stock market. I would rather have some little sensation rather than stagnation." Where there is life there is stir.

The chorus sang a special number, Mr. Stewart sang a solo, "Jesus Blessed Jesus," Rev. William H. Tilford read the scripture; Dr. V. F. Brown led in prayer. Mr. Middleton made the announcements.

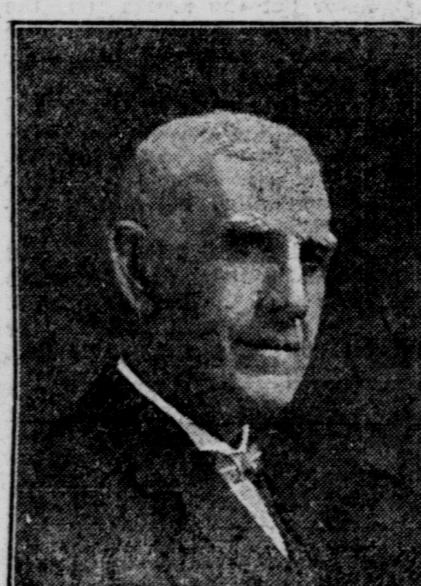

Rev. Tilford preaches Monday night; Tuesday evening, Rev. Middleton; Wednesday, Mr. Stewart; Thursday, Dr. Brown; Friday Mr. Stewart.

District prayer meetings in connection with the evangelistic campaign of the First Reformed, Trinity, and the First Presbyterian Churches, will be held Tuesday at 10:00 a. m., to 10:15 a. m. at the homes of Mrs. Ed. Lightfoot, South Monroe St.; Mrs. Linkhart, West Market St.; Mrs. W. J. Oglesbee, North King St.; Mrs. Charles McPherson, West Second St. At these meetings one of the pastors and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stewart will be present.

There will be children's services, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 4:00—Mr. Stewart.

Services for women only at 3:00 on the same days—Mrs. Stewart, (Margaret Eavey).

SPEED RECORD IS SMASHED IN WEST

SETH W. BROWN

Los Angeles, Feb. 26.—Jimmy Murphy, champion race driver of 1922, began his campaign for the speed honors of 1923 by flashing across the finish line in yesterday's 250 mile classic in new record time at the head of a procession of racing cars, the like of which has never before been seen assembled together on a Pacific coast track.

Murphy's winning time was 2 hours, 9 minutes, 43 $\frac{3}{4}$ seconds, or an average of 115.8 miles an hour. The previous record was 114.6 miles an hour. Murphy drove a Durant special. Bennett Hill, in a McDonald special, finished second; Ralph De Palma, Duisenberg special, third; Eddie Hearne, Durant special, fourth, and Frank Elliott, in a Leach special, fifth. Of the 16 starters 10 finished.

Murphy's new record is just a little more than one mile per hour faster than the mark he set on the same track Dec. 3 last.

When done, turn it over and add two pints of boiling water, three peeled and diced carrots, one teaspoon of salt and a dash of pepper. Cover the pot tightly and simmer for four hours, adding more hot water if the liquid boils away. Serve on a platter with the pot-liquor (thickened with two tablespoons of flour) poured over it.

Southern Potato Omelet: To one scant cup of smoothly-mashed white potato add a small piece of butter, slightly melted, two tablespoons of sweet milk, one teaspoon of salt, a pinch of grated nutmeg, a dash of pepper, and the beaten yolks of four eggs. Whip four egg-whites stiff and fold these into the potato-mixer, then turn all into a hot, buttered frying pan and let cook over a good fire till the omelet browns on the bottom.

SAYS COMMON RED CLOVER IS SOWN

Columbus, Feb. 26.—C. J. West, state-federal agricultural statistician, announced that, according to reports from crop correspondents, 65 per cent of Ohio clover acreage is of the common red variety. About half of the alsike in the state is sown alone, a recent report by West indicates, and one-half is sown in mixture. The total alsike acreage is a little more than one-third of the common clover acreage. A little less than 10 per cent of the clover is mammoth red and 3 per cent is a fair average for sweet clover. These figures vary considerably in different parts of the state, according to the report, the alsike acreage being somewhat greater in the northern section. The demand for soy bean seed will be heavier this year than last, the report says.

CHAPTER XVIII.

To both Dick and Ann their child was a wonder babe. They named him for her father, John Peabody Peabody, but called him Jack. He was a healthy, happy baby, with Dick's coloring, and Ann's sweet, firm mouth. As they bent over his crib when he slept, or watched him develop his cunning ways, they grew closer together again, as they had been when they were first married—before Grace came.

He was very little trouble and Ann had let the Chink boy go.

"We need to save for him now," she told Dick. "He'll have the ranch some day when we are old."

"That'll be a long time, Ann, and I don't want you to overdo," Dick replied, but Ann had her way. Wages were high, and help was wasteful. Dick worked from morning until night, she would do her part.

Then too, Bessie had constituted herself almost a member of the family since the baby's arrival. Nearly every day saw her at the Belden ranch, holding little Jack, declaring she would teach him to call her auntie as soon as he could talk and helping Ann with her sewing.

"I'm so happy I'm almost frightened, Bessie." Then they would both laugh at her foolishness.

Dick had not left the ranch for some time, but it was necessary for him to procure supplies and Ann made out her list both for the house and the ranch. She had no fear now in letting him go. He loved the boy too well to drink and forget anything. She kissed him goodbye with a light heart, saying:

"You'll get home early, won't you, dear? And don't forget the rattle and other things for Jack."

"Just as if I could with them all written down at the head of the list! Even the ranch has to take a second place now, you little beggar," he retorted as he kissed them both.

Ann had not heard from her parents in two weeks, and was a bit worried; but she consoled herself with the thought that no news was good news, although she had watched for days for a letter.

She let him sleep until the coffee was ready, then wakened him, and stood over him while he drank a cup of it. As always, he was soon himself, the long ride home had partially sobered him, and the coffee did the rest. He ate a good supper, then they undid the parcels, laying the toys in the crib beside the sleeping boy.

"Dear, I am so afraid to have you think that stuff those men carry about with them," Ann finally said.

"I only had a couple of drinks, Ann! It's hard to say 'no' to them. They're good fellows. I hate to be a molly-coddle. And I bought all the things on the list, didn't I? I got them before I joined the boys." He frowned, drew his brows together, as if trying to recall something, brushed his hand across his forehead, and gave it up.

Ann said no more. Nagging him done his errands first. That showed he thought of them. Perhaps if she were patient she could persuade him in time to let the stuff alone.

It was two weeks afterward that she recalled the look on his face as if he were trying to remember something. And then it was too late.

"I got them all, Ann. Met the boys, and crooned over him.

U. S. BLOCKS PACKERS' MERGER

SERVES NOTICE AMALGAMATION IS NOT LEGAL

Government Declares Proposed Plan Would Stifle Competition.

HEARING ON APRIL 2

Secretary of Agriculture To Review Evidence and Hear Packers

Washington, Feb. 26.—The first move on the part of the United States government to prevent the merger of the great Armour and Morris packing interests was taken today when Secretary of Agriculture Wallace served formal notice on both companies that the amalgamation would be in violation of the packers and stock yards act because it would be "stifle competition" and "create a combination in restraint of trade."

Wallace said he had learned that the Armour and Morris companies had entered into a tentative agreement for combine of their properties, but that the merger is not formally consummated.

He held that the merger of these companies would be a possible step to the amalgamation of all the so-called "big five" packers.

Will Hold Hearing

Wallace will hold a hearing here on April 2 to review the evidence against the proposed combine and to hear the case of the packers.

At the conclusion of this hearing, if the evidence warrants, he has authority under the law to issue an order against the Armour and Morris Companies to "cease and desist" in the merger project.

The packers would then have the right to appeal from Wallace's decision to the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

A fine of from $500 to $10,000 for each day's violation of the order and imprisonment up to five years is provided after the final decision of the federal court.

Preliminary complaint filed by Secretary Wallace today that J. Ogden Armour, acting for the Armour corporation, contracted with Morris and Company to acquire all the assets of Morris and company.

Eliminate Morris

It is charged that this transaction "provides for the entire elimination of Morris and Company from the meat packing field and constitutes a violation of the packers and stock yards act in that the acquisition by the Armour interests of Morris and company, including the capital stock or business of other corporations owned by Morris and Company, and the acquisition of the stock of Armour and Company of Delaware by Morris and company on the other hand, constitutes a restraint of interstate commerce and creates or tends to create a monopoly in many sections and communities of the United States and foreign countries in the purchase of live stock and the sale of live stock products."

Swift, Armour and Morris are the largest of the big five packers, Wallace said. "There corporations kill sixty per cent of the inspected slaughter in the United States and they dominate the principal markets."

"My position is that should any two of these packers be brought together in a single corporation, competition would be lessened and a monopoly created."

"Merger of Armour and Morris would be the first step in the violation of the principle of the law, for it would tend to restrict competition."

The consideration of the purchase of the Morris interests by Armour was given at $19,000,000 in cash, $10,000,000 in preferred stock and $10,000,000 in common stock of Armour and Company, of Illinois, and Delaware.

INVESTIGATE WRECK SUNDAY—50 INJURED

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Investigation was being made today of a wreck yesterday here when a man was killed and 50 persons injured, four seriously. A Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee train crashed into a northwestern "L" train. The train crews blamed the dense fog.

JUMP FROM FIRE FATAL TO MOTHER

New York, Feb. 26.—Trapped in her apartment on the third floor of a burning west side tenement early today when flames roared through the rooms cutting off every means of exit, Mrs. John Healy threw her twin babies, from a window and jumped after them.

The mother and one baby died instantly. The other child is not expected to live.

Healy, who followed his wife in her leap, is suffering from internal injuries which probably will prove fatal.

The flames walled off tenants on upper floors from escape.

The windows were crowded with screaming people.

Ladders were run up and the tenants removed to safety. Two firemen were painfully burned in rescue work.

BANK PRESIDENT
HELD IN THEFT

Frank L. Taylor

Frank L. Taylor, $50-a-week President of the First National Bank of Warren, Massachusetts, is under arrest in Chicago, charged with embezzling $209,000 of the bank's funds. He declares he was the dupe of Joseph B. Marcinco, former Chicago barber, who came from Italy in the steerage only a few years ago and got to be a second Ponzi.

TWO NOTORIOUS GANGSTERS ARE NABBED BY COPS

"Big Frank" Berger Wanted for Murder Shot and Killed.

house in West Philadelphia, police early today shot and killed "Big Frank" Berger, alias Moore, 38, said to be wanted in Pittsburgh on a murder charge, and wounded and captured John Doyle, a local gangster, said to be the slayer of Tommy Loftus, underworld character.

A tip that the men were hiding at the house resulted in a squad of plain clothesmen being sent to arrest the suspects. Scouting carefully the police discovered the place was almost an arsenal with Springfield rifles and automatic pistols in abundance. Reinforcements were sent for, and at 1 o'clock the front and rear doors were smashed in at the same minute. Doyle and Frank, automatics in both hands, blazed away, retreating slowly up the stairs.

Pictures fell shattered, window-crashed and plaster spattered in white puffs. "Big Frank," attempting to escape by the porch roof, was instantly killed by a waiting blue coat outside. Doyle for a time barricaded himself in a room, firing through the door, but this was smashed in, and he surrendered but not in time to avoid being knocked unconscious by a blow from a blackjack. Two girls in the house were taken to police station.

ITALY IS SEEKING U. S. FINANCIAL AID

Rome, Feb. 26.—E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the U. S. Steel Corporation, held a conference here today with Premier Benito Mussolini, regarding possible participation by American capital in the economic restoration of Italy in building up her factories and her foreign trade.

Engineers representing the U. S. Steel Corporation are looking into Italian projects for public works, including new construction in the Naples harbor.

EVANGELIST DIES.

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 26.—The Rev. Joseph F. Spitzer, Evangelist of Evansville, Ind., was found dead in bed at the home of Rev. George Studebaker today, a few hours after he had preached an evangelistic sermon on "The Hour of Judgment." Heart disease was the cause of the death.

GAS EXPLOSION
WRECKS DWELLING

Sandusky, O., Feb. 26.—A two-story brick and stone dwelling occupied for a number of years by the parents of Charles, Daniel and Gustave Frohman, New York theatrical men, was wrecked by a gas explosion early today. Mrs. Mary Nash, who conducted a rooming house on the first floor, escaped with slight injuries.

John Moore, of Republic, O., a roomer, was so badly injured that he was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital. His wife also was slightly injured. George Holzhauser, with his wife and two children who lived upstairs, were slightly hurt.

Whether natural or sewer gas caused the explosion has not been determined.

WOODEN LEG IS
CAUSE OF BREAK

Cincinnati, Feb. 26.—Breaking a good leg because of a wooden one is the experience of John Delaney, 35 years old, who was taken to a hospital here yesterday. Delaney stepped out of his automobile and his artificial left limb slipped, causing him to fall. The impact fractured his right leg. At the hospital he told physicians that a fall three years ago had led to amputation of the left leg.

HARVEY SPEECH CHEERS BRITISH AS AID IS SEEN

Believe U. S. May Enter European Affairs Before End of the Year

London, Feb. 26.—British newspapers today took heart from the Saturday night speech of George Harvey, American ambassador, that the United States may enter European affairs before the end of the present year.

The papers professed to see additional evidence in support of this opinion in the proposal of President Harding that the United States join the permanent Court of International Justice and Arbitration established under the League of Nations.

Ambassador Harvey had extolled the growing warmth of Anglo-American relations and said he believed the United States eventually "would have to come into European affairs."

Coming so close upon the heels of Premier Bonar Law's prediction of an Anglo-American accord, belief was strengthened not only in Great Britain but throughout Europe that the foundations are being laid for an agreement, perhaps a definite treaty of alliance, between Great Britain and the United States. Such a treaty, it is understood, would bind not only Britain but the whole British empire, being signed by representatives of the component commonwealths.

HORSE KILLED IN FALL WHEN FORCED OFF ROAD BY AUTO

A horse belonging to Troy Green, colored, of near Lumberton was killed when it fell in a ditch on Home Avenue Saturday night after being forced off the road by the driver of an automobile who did not stop slowly up the stairs.

Pictures fell shattered, window-crashed and plaster spattered in white puffs. "Big Frank," attempting to escape by the porch roof, was instantly killed by a waiting blue coat outside. Doyle for a time barricaded himself in a room, firing through the door, but this was smashed in, and he surrendered but not in time to avoid being knocked unconscious by a blow from a blackjack. Two girls in the house were taken to police station.

Neither Green nor his wife, who were occupants of the buggy were hurt. Police were unable to find a trace of the motorist.

PLAGUES RAVAGING DETENTION CAMPS WHERE CREEKS HELD

Typhus and Smallpox Play Havoc With Prisoners In Turkey.

Constantinople, Feb. 26.—Scores of Greek Christian and Ottoman refugees in the detention camp at Scutari are dying daily in the plagues of typhus and smallpox which are ravaging the fugitives. Two hundred and ninety-seven refugees died in this camp within the past seven days.

All of the fugitives gathered at Scutari were transported from Trebizond where they had been concentrated from the interior of Anatolia.

According to the Near East Relief Administration 20,000 refugees are in the camp living in filthy stables and barracks.

General Harrington, commander of the British troops in Constantinople sent a party to investigate. The investigation reported that conditions were fully as bad as had been pictured.

The Near East Relief Administration is rushing medicines and food-stuffs.

SEEK BODY OF GIRL THOUGHT MURDERED: POLICE HOLD MAN

Six-Year-Old Philadelphia Lass Missing; Sister Aged Four Tells of Abduction and Identifies Their Assailant.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 26.—The creeks and sewers of the congested northeast district of this city are today being searched by 300 police and many citizens in an effort to locate the body of six-year-old Lillian Gilmore, kidnapped, brutally assaulted, and thrown from a motor car late Saturday night.

Wylie F. Morgan, 39, who was dramatically identified as a suspect in the crime by Lillian's four-year-old sister, Dorothy, who was also abducted by the kidnaper, was subjected to a severe cross examination at detective headquarters early today but his answers were evasive.

Morgan, according to police, was arrested following a house-to-house canvass of the section where the crime occurred, and was found to have blood stained clothing in his room. Shortly after his arrest, Dorothy Gilmore identified him from among a group of 35 plain clothes policemen.

"Lilly's dead, the bad man killed her," burst from the child's lips in response to questions. Shuddering with terror the little girl told how the car had been stopped on a lonely road near some icy spot and Lillian apparently attacked and then hurled from the car.

Letters were found on Morgan showing that he comes from Maud Texas.

PRESIDENT WILL TAKE TWO ISSUES TO PEOPLE IN NEXT FEW MONTHS

World Court Plan and Ship Subsidy Bill Will Be Brought Out in "Swing" if Congress Fails To Settle Them.

Washington, Feb. 26.—President Harding requested the Senate to sanction American participation in the permanent court of international justice, organized by the League of Nations, only after inquiry had developed the futility of America's trying to promote a separate court, entirely disassociated from the league, it was stated officially here today.

Secretary of State Hughes believes the United States must either adhere to the league court under the reservations, he proposed, or be put in the position of abandoning the settlement of international disputes by judicial methods, so long advocated by American statesmen.

Washington, Feb. 26.—President Harding plans to take two issues "to the people" between March and December if the now dying 67th Congress fails to settle them.

One is the ship subsidy program, now waterlogged and about to sink because the Senate insists upon talking, not voting on it.

The other is the proposition that the United States shall adhere to the world court of justice set up under the League of Nations, upon which it appeared unlikely today any definite action can be taken before the expiration of the present Congress six days hence.

Washington, Feb. 26.—That President Harding's proposal to have the United States join the permanent court of international justice created by the league of nations will fail to receive the sanction of the senate is the practically unanimous opinion of senate leaders in both parties.

Even the most ardent supporters of the administration admit that it will be almost certainly impossible to bring the matter to a vote before adjournment next Sunday.

Members of the "irreconcilable" group, which has fought bitterly all attempts to associate the United States with the league in any way, were frank in their declarations that the president's proposal "must receive mature and very careful consideration." This view, moreover, was accepted even by recognized administration adherents on the senate committee on foreign relations, to which the proposal has been referred.

"Irreconcilables" on the committee meanwhile are making a close study of the four reservations proposed by Secretary of State Hughes. It is practically a certainty that senators of this group will have reservations of their own to present when formal consideration of the president's proposal begins.

The arrest of the two Piney Fork men by Sheriff Lucas was made after information was furnished about two men acting suspiciously. They were heavily armed, a gun and a stiletto were found on each man searched following arrest and last night three more guns were found in between the batresses of a bed in the cell at Smithfield where the men were incarcerated before being brought to Steubenville. Cashier E. V. Jones has partially identified Mastracci as one of the bandits.

The condition of Assistant Cashier Harry E. Price who is confined to a Wheeling hospital was reported slightly changed for the better this morning although he is still in a critical condition.

The suspects arrested at Mt. Gilead, Ohio, were given their names as Mr. and Mrs. Earl Conner and Raymond Payne. Mt. Gilead authorities heard of the attempt hold up by wireless, the news being broadcast together with a description of the bandits.

Doubt is expressed that the United States would be welcomed into the court on the terms outlined by Secretary Hughes. Europe, it is pointed out, would have everything to gain and nothing to lose by an American adhesion; and the league, it is generally agreed, would be glad to give the American government a voice in the election of judges. The state department, according to the prevailing belief, has received informal but unquestionable assurances which practically guarantee the acceptance of the Hughes plan for American participation in case the approval of the senate can be obtained.

Action Causes Comment.

Considerable comment has been caused by the president's action in asking the advice and consent of the senate before initiating formal negotiations looking toward American adhesion to the protocol and statute establishing the court. While quite in accordance with the constitution and without precedent, the president's move is interpreted as indicating unusual consideration for the prerogatives of the senate in the conduct of foreign relations.

Unlikely to receive approval from the present senate, the Harding-Hughes proposal also will face considerable opposition in the new senate,

LIFE BUILDING IS PASTOR'S SUBJECT— CLUB IS PRESENT

Declaring that we are all architects of our own lives and pointing out that the teachings of Christ constitute the only safe foundation upon which to build, the Rev. W. H. Tilford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church addressed about 35 members of the Xenia Kiwanis Club, who attended the services, Sunday morning, in addition to the regular congregation.

Members of the club heard their motto, "We Build," used as the text of the pastor's sermon, in which he developed the theme that we are all builders, using several passages of scripture from the New Testament.

"New York has a sky line which is the marvel of the country," said Rev. Tilford. "Every city has two sky lines. One that of the physical buildings the other of the citizenship. Both must pierce the sky. The citizenship must touch heaven. All men are architects. All men must choose materials for building. All men must meet the test as to permanency."

The text used was from Paul when he wrote to the Corinthians as to their building on the foundation of Christ Jesus, Rev. Tilford indicated that the all-important thing is the foundation and that here is only one foundation Jesus Christ which will stand.

"Civilization as we have it now is the result of Christianity," said the pastor. Paul the apostle suggested also two kinds of groups of material—first, wood hay, stubble—the material for a shack. The second—gold, precious or costly stone, and silver, materials for a mansion. This can be applied to every phase of life."

"Character is the building for which everyone strives. Put in the golden ideals, literature, true service, helpfulness to all. Apply the same to home making—kindness, culture, bigness, fine spirit. Put the same into intellectuality. Community life."

In this connection Rev. Tilford referred to the recent agitation for a community center, saying:

"Xenia wants something. For days the agitation has been going on. I am not saying what it is, this morning, but I am suggesting what it might be. The future of the young people of the community is at stake. We must, we ought to have something that will help our city. Athletics all forms of play for all ages and circumstances. A city beautiful will be a mockery unless there is some care for the leisure time of the youngsters. City morale is needed too. The responsibility is great to build into the community those things which will take the whole community into consideration."

Rev. Tilford applied the building of gold, etc., into religion and closed with an appeal to the congregation to have that which would be permanent in eternity, for the life built would have to stand the test of eternity.

Miss Zella Soward sang a solo—"Come unto me and rest."

Dr. Atcheson, of Danville, Ky., president of the Kentucky college for women was present and led in prayer. Dr. Atcheson will be remembered as a Xenia boy who has made good in the Ministry.

INSURANCE AGENTS WILL BE ENTERTAINED

Local Paper Hanger Can Now Take Care of His Work; Gives Ka-di-ok
Credit for His Improved Condition.

After having suffered for two and half years with stomach and kidney trouble, doctoring all through that period, and being unable to successfully carry on his work as a paperhanger, Mr. George Ohlen, residing at 388 Lechner Avenue, Columbus, now declares that he has entirely recovered from his stomach ailment and that his general condition has improved wonderfully, through taking Ka-di-ok.

In his signed statement, he says: "For about two and a half years I suffered almost constantly with my stomach. My back hurt me also. I was unable to eat, and what food I did put into my stomach caused me such misery that I almost dreaded to sit down to a dining table. During all this time I tried a number of remedies and also was treated by doctors, but did not seem to get any improvement. Several weeks ago I read where a friend of mine, who was suffering from similar troubles to my own, had been relieved by taking Ka-di-ok, and I purchased a bottle and began taking it. Improvement in my condition was noticed in several days, and I have continued the treatment up to the present time. Today I can eat any kind of food my appetite craves and enjoy it to the fullest extent. The pains have entirely left my stomach and I am no longer bothered with my kidneys. I am glad of this from the fact that I am a paper hanger by trade, and this is my busy season. I am able to work every day, where last year I could hardly get on a stepladder and labored under the most distressing conditions. This is the first time during the past three years that I have been able to take care of my work."

PARTY GIVEN FOR BRIDE-ELECT

Many friends will be interested in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Hazel Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, to Mr. William L. Harner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harner.

Mrs. Lawrence Lile, sister of the bride-elect proved charming hostess to twelve of her young women friends at a Washington's birthday party at her country home, south of Xenia, Thursday afternoon, when the announcement of Miss Johnson's and Mr. Harner's engagement was made. The wedding will take place in March.

The decorations of the Lile home carried out the spirit of the holiday, with colors of red and white predominating. The dining room was prettily decorated with festooning of red and white, leading from the chandelier to each corner of the table. The table was centered by a large basket of red roses, tiny red baskets of candy serving as favors at each place.

While the guests were seated they enjoyed a contest, the prize, a crystal dish, which concealed the announcement card, of the engagement of Miss Johnson and Mr. Harner, being won by Mrs. Mildred Laurens.

CHRISTOPHER BRAMBLE, of Brooklyn, Retired Chief Quartermaster U. S. Navy, who says his determination to try Tanlac was the wisest decision he ever made as the medicine completely restored his health.

Christopher Bramble, 783 Monroe St., Brooklyn N. Y., Chief Quartermaster U. S. Navy, retired, is now an amateur champion of the merit of Tanlac. "I'll stand by Tanlac to the very last," declared Mr. Bramble, "for it has helped me back on my feet and I am feeling like a new man now. I had suffered from stomach trouble for two years and was in an awful run-down condition. My appetite went back on me and when I did eat a little something I would suffer pain and misery for hours. My nerves were all out of fix. I would lie awake tossing and retelling until almost day and I felt weak and tired all the time. I had no energy to do anything and just felt any way but right. "Well, I just kept on losing weight and getting worse until I concluded to try Tanlac, and that was the wisest decision I ever made. It's the only medicine I ever saw that does all they say it will. I now eat three hearty meals a day and never feel a touch of indigestion, and my appetite was never better, even when I was a school boy. My sleep is sound and restful and I get up in the morning feeling refreshed and fine. My weight has increased and I have been built up until I ever felt better in my life. If anybody doubts this statement just let them see me."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. Over 35 million bottles sold. adv

PATRONS OF SCHOOL SEE PERFORMANCE

A large number of the patrons of the school attended an enjoyable entertainment which was held Friday evening at Lauman school near this city as a climax to the Visitors' and Parents' Week.

The pupils rendered an excellent program of songs, recitations, solos, pantomimes and playlets. Under the direction of the teacher, Miss Cora Mathews, the pupils of the primary grades also gave Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, The American Creed and a lesson in history. The address of the evening was given by Prof. D. H. Barnes, who spoke on "The Effect Ohio's Industries Have on Rural Communities." A pleasing feature of the program was two piano numbers and two vocal solos given by Prof. Ferguson, the musical instructor of the County.

Following the program the girls of the domestic science class of the seventh and eighth grades served thirteen delicious angel food cakes which they had baked, and with them also served ice cream.

ACROSS THE YEARS.

It was not easy to be the first President of the United States. Nor is it easy to be the twenty-ninth President. There must be hours when President Harding, brooding over the problems of today, looks from the White House windows across to Virginia where Washington sleeps at Mount Vernon and compares the problems of the first President with his own. There are times when the troubles of an older America touch hands across the years with those of an infant America.

After all, how strangely alike are those troubles! The problems of Woodrow Wilson and Warren Harding are much the same as those of George Washington. The twenty-ninth President's troubles with the Senate are not new; the first President had them. He was forced to make compromises, many of them, even as Harding is forced. There are spoilsmen now; there were plenty of them then.

Now the American Legion demands a bonus and other considerations; then it was the Society of the Cincinnati demanding place and power. In 1794 Washington put down the "Whisky Rebellion"; in 1923 the Nation is trying to make "whisky" a forgotten word in America.

There were Borahs and Brookharts and La Follettes in those far-off days. Our radicals now beat their breasts and denounce Wall Street, Big Business and the "invisible government"; then they saw the threat of monarchy and autocracy in every act of the new state.

Then, as now, the world was in a cycle of wars. The French Revolution was tearing the old order apart in Europe even as the great war, the Red Commune and the proletarian tides are shaking things today. Then, as now, the Old World was a lure and a threat.

Harding's inaugural was the signal of American withdrawal from Old World affairs. Washington's proclamation of April 22, 1793, was the signal then. That withdrawal endured for better than a century; how long the retreat of today will last no wise man or soothsayer can foretell.—Public Ledger.

THE "PEACE" OF VERSAILLES IN EUROPE.

Irving Brant, writing in the St. Louis Star, of which he is the editor, calls attention to the fact that the "secret treaties," the existence of which made the proceedings of the Versailles conference a farce, were published in full in the New York Evening Post during the winter of 1917-18. On August 19, 1919, President Wilson told Senator Borah at the celebrated White House conference that the provisions of the secret treaties were for the first time disclosed to him after he went to Paris late in 1918. The territorial divisions at Paris followed so far as was practicable at the time for provisions of these secrets. Commenting upon this Mr. Brant says: "The United States is paying the penalty in mortification, and the world in suffering and danger, for the ignorance in which the American people were kept during the war. The newspapers were both the cause and the victims of our national psychology, which demanded that all minds conform to an official standard. Officialdom is merely running true to its standards when it tries to suppress facts, but newspapers are false to their life principle when they join the conspiracy. Throughout the war, the newspapers of America were agents of propaganda. They were moved by high purposes; they felt themselves consecrated to a patriotic endeavor. But propaganda in the name of patriotism differs from other propaganda not a particle, when measured by the results ensuing from the suppression of the truth. The penalty for suppressing the secret treaties was the peace of Versailles and the penalty for the Peace of Versailles is all about us."

ANNEXATION PLOT CHARGED BY RHINELAND PRESIDENT.

Charges that France was working actively a year ago for the occupation of the Ruhr and the annexation of the Rhineland are contained in an article in the Boersen Zeitung. The article is over the signature of Dr. Gruetzner, President of Rhenish Prussia, who on Sunday was arrested and ordered deported from occupied territory for having written an "impudent" letter to General Beaussain, Belgian commander at Duisburg. The article previously was published in several Rhineland newspapers.

"The cat has been let out of the bag." Dr. Gruetzner concludes his article, citing alleged written and oral evidence to the effect that the beginning of last year Heer Smith, the Rhineland separatist leader, conducted direct negotiations with the French at Dusseldorf.

One of the conferees at that time, says Dr. Gruetzner, was the representative of the French Foreign Office. The article adds that the question of partial occupation of the Ruhr, as well as propaganda having occupation as its object was discussed at the time. One of the "German" participants in the negotiations told Gruetzner of the conference at the end of last December. Gruetzner alleges that "it cost me 20,000 marks."

Dr. Gruetzner asserts "Germany's ostensible 'default'" on the delivery of reparations coal, which dates back only to January, 1923 "is only a pretext to cloak the plan for political possession of the Rhineland, which had already been decided upon a year previously."

Several letters have reached me recently asking directions for making the colored hair powder to use between shampoo times on oily hair. As we all know to our sorrow, powdering with ordinary white powder will take up and lift all the muscles of the face, so the sagging will disappear, since all of your muscles will have become firm.

In addition to this massage, all the muscles under the chin and around the throat, making strokes with the palm of the hand. Begin these the superfluous oil from the hair and leave it dry and fluffy, but it will also leave it very dusty in appearance. No amount of brushing will bring back the gloss it had before, or that it should have after a shampoo.

If very coarse corn meal can be used it would be a greater improvement. I once suggested sifted coarse yellow corn meal through a cloth or shaking it up in a bag, so that a lot of the fine white dust escaped. The coarse particles can be used, but even this is not wholly satisfactory.

The best thing is to make a shampoo powder the color of your hair. To do this take a quantity of ordinary white laundry starch and, if your hair is very dark, melt it in cold coffee as strong and black as you can make it. Stir this about, pour off the liquid when it has settled and let the starch dry, finally crumbling it through linen or silk to get a powder that is free of lumps. The coffee smell can be eliminated by mixing in a bit of sachet powder. Powder for a lighter shade hair should be made with less strong coffee.

For a pale or blonde hair, use strong tea instead of coffee. When this sort of powder is brushed through the hair and brushed and shaken out, it will not leave it with that dusty appearance. The "gloss" can be restored by putting a big piece of absorbent cotton over the brush and giving the hair a final thorough going over with this. This is a good "stunt" to know and one which few beauty shops utilize. If you have a hair drier at home, or a blower attached to a vacuum cleaner, you can blow out most of the shampoo powder.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made

Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they hardly keep house without it. It's simple and easy, and the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It begins to penetrate through every air passage, loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm from the bronchial tubes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Today's Talk

BE HAPPY.

After Walt Whitman's death, there was found among his papers an undated scrap with these words in his own handwriting: "A Poem—Theme—Be Happy, Going forth, seeing all the beautiful perfect things."

I can see in my imagination that quaint figure, with its whimsical smile, journeying from Brooklyn, New York, to Central Park—now walking, now riding, now engaged in talking with some policemen or some wayward.

I see him at another time sitting on a ferry boat talking with some chance acquaintance and learning always something new, something beautiful from some seemingly unlovely life. For no matter where Walt Whitman went, he sought to draw out something that he might later shape up and present to the world. And so his theme of life was to go forth to be happy and to make others happy—to see "all the beautiful perfect things."

In his famous work "Leaves of Grass" appears this sentence: "In me the caresser of life wherever moving."

It sounds very trite and Pollyannish to say: "Be Happy!" And yet that is exactly what we must say to ourselves and impress upon our minds as a positive command if we would disarm half our foes in advance.

I passed a person on the street today whose face depressed me for a moment because of its cold, unhappy cast. One does not have to smile on his face all the time in order to be happy. Happiness is most of the time a very serious affair.

But the person who is happy lends a look to the outer world that is unmistakable.

Be happy!

Why not?

DISASTROUS TRIP—DROP 2 OUT OF 3 ON ROAD

EAST HIGH LOSES 46 to 32

Luzor, Egypt, Feb. 26.—Tons of limestone today were dumped over the 3,000 year old tomb of Tutankhamen, in the Valley of the Kings, to protect it until the Egyptologists open it some time next autumn.

Sluice gates have been installed to prevent water from entering the tomb and ruining the antique relics in event of a cloudburst during the rainy season.

Throughout the summer Egyptian military police will stand guard before the ancient burial shrine to protect it from grave robbers or from those who would destroy the mummy to prevent the "sacrilege of public exhibition."

Lord Carnarvon and Howard Carter, chiefs of the exploration party, which found the tomb, have not made definite plans but it is believed they will reopen the tomb at the end of October. In the meantime an agreement will have been reached with the Egyptian government as to the final disposition of the body.

WRONGED WIFE SAYS SHE WILL BE FREED

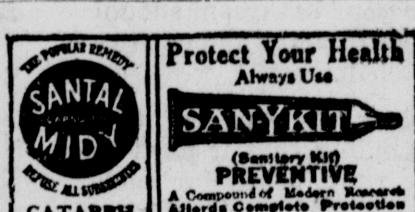

New York, Feb. 26.—"I did right when I killed my sister. And I know no jury will convict me after they hear my story—my life, my sister's life, my husband's life and my family's life."

Such was the declaration of Mrs. Minnie Reisler, wife of "John, the Barber," the fight promoter, who killed her young, pretty sister, Bertha Katz, last July. It was the first time she has talked. She will be put on trial on March 5.

District Attorney Dodd intimated that she, her two sons, Morris and George, and her brother, Max Katz, all of whom are implicated in the killing, may be permitted to plead guilty to a lesser degree of murder. It was reported they will seek to avoid trial on a first degree murder indictment. The murder took place in a bedroom. Mrs. Jennie Katz, mother of Mrs. Reisler and the slain girl, witnessed the killing. Five shots were fired by Mrs. Reisler, who accused her young sister of supplanting her in her husband's affections.

ROBBER SUSPECT HELD.

Cambridge, O., Feb. 26.—Charged with shooting Charles Moss, paymaster for the Akron Coal company, in a holdup, Andy Vososky, a miner, is in jail here. The holdup occurred in the hills. Moss, who was shot in the arm, will recover. A satchel containing $16,000, taken by the robber, was found by a posse near the scene of the robbery.

What Are You Missing?

NO one can want anything until he knows of its existence.

That is why ancient folk managed to live fairly contented lives without window glass, soap, automobiles, stoves, toothbrushes, telephones and so many of the things we consider the bare necessities of life.

Advertising has done more than any one thing to make this era of ours so rich in comforts and conveniences. To advertising is directly due much of the multiplication of products and services which are now at the disposal of every one.

There is no denying the fact that advertising has ironed out the mechanics of existence. It has made life easier and more pleasant by bringing to our attention countless necessities which years ago a king's ransom could not have bought.

Folks dress better, eat better, sleep better and live better because of advertising.

You owe much to advertising—and you miss much when you fail to read it

FRENCH ADVANCE IN TWO SECTORS DURING SUNDAY

Paris, Feb. 26.—Within a month the political and civil administrations of the Rhineland and the Ruhr will be taken over by the Franco-Belgian forces.

News that this grave step is to be taken leaked out from semi-official quarters here, but caused little excitement. The majority of well informed Frenchmen have long been expectant that necessity would force the French to take over the local governments of the occupied regions.

The plan which will be put into force, beginning at Essen, Duesseldorf and other centers, will be gradually extended to the entire Rhineland. It includes:

First—The appointment of allied "civil administrators," who will replace the mayors and other civil government officials. The local councils will remain, provided they do not impede the work of the new organizations.

Second—The collection of all taxes, federal, provincial and city, the surplus of which will be confiscated by the allies, to be applied on reparations.

Third—The complete seizure of all railroads, including local lines.

Fourth—Allied control of all banks, financial institutions, posts, telegraphs and telephones.

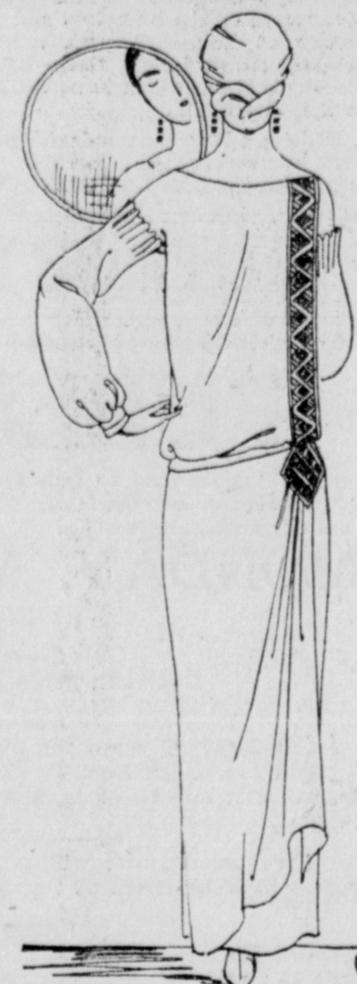

The Franco-Belgians are now studying the project of founding a "high Rhineland commission," composed of prominent Germans, like Dr. Doretz, who favor the establishment of a Rhenish-Westphalian republic. This commission would work under a "supreme administrator," chosen by the allies, who would probably be a French general whose functions would be similar to those of Marshal Lyautey, governor general of the French protectorate in Morocco.

It was announced that the territory between the three circular bridge-heads—Mayence, Coblenz and Cologne—have been occupied by the French. This action was taken by the occupation forces to make the collection of customs a more simple process, and also to facilitate the control of the railways. An elaborate system of customs offices has been established to allow purchasers of German goods to pay the 10 per cent export tax in cases where the German manufacturers refuse.

It is stated that France and Belgium are prepared to evacuate the Ruhr on the condition that Germany reforms her finances and accepts the proposition of a "guarantee committee" or other allied control, and agrees to continue the payments of reparations in kind.

AARON CRITES, 83, DIES ON MONDAY

Aaron Crites, 83, pioneer resident of Spring Valley, and well known man in that vicinity, died at his home Monday morning at three o'clock. Death resulted from infirmities of age.

Mr. Crites was born in West Virginia, February 23, 1840, and had resided in the vicinity of Spring Valley since a young man. His first marriage was to Miss Margaret Babbs of that village, who died in February 1897, his second marriage to Miss Mary Thomas of Spring Valley taking place several years later. Two children were born to the first marriage, William E. Crites of Spring Valley, and Mrs. T. M. Scarff, also of Spring Valley. Mrs. Crites also survives. Mrs. Rebecca Gretzinger, of this city, and several other brothers and sisters, who reside in other states, also survive.

Mr. Crites was a member of the Methodist Church of Spring Valley. Funeral services will be conducted Thursday, the time and place to be announced later.

KLAN PRESENTS PURSE OF $200 TO OHIO CHURCH

Columbus, Feb. 26.—Five hooded figures wearing Ku Klux Klan regalia last night quietly entered and walked down the aisle of the Broad street Church of Christ, and presented the pastor, Rev. C. O. Woodward, with a purse containing $200, an American flag, a Bible and a basket of carnations.

Rev. Woodward is the Columbus minister whose address before the Springfield Klan February 12 was the subject of considerable controversy during the court proceedings against W. M. Cortner, alleged organizer.

Shortly after the appearance of the klansmen in the church, a fiery cross was burned in a field in the south side. The number of masked men gathered around the burning cross was variously estimated at from 50 to 500. Before police arrived the citizens of the invisible empire had dispersed.

"Tonight's demonstration was entirely unexpected," Rev. Woodward said. "I feel greatly honored by it. I am not seeking notoriety, but only trying to do my duty to preserve American ideals," he concluded.

HOSPITALS OF NEW YORK ARE CROWDED

New York, Feb. 26.—With her hospitals crowded by "flu" and pneumonia cases, and fuel scarcer than at any previous period during the season New York is bending every effort with winter to bring barge loads of coal across the ice encumbered reaches of the Hudson river from New Jersey to build up a reserve supply against a possible return of cold weather.

Never before in the history of the city have hospitals been as over-crowded. Officials attribute this largely to the severe weather and shortage of fuel, in addition to a great many accidents cases due to ice covered pavements and slippery streets.

TURK EXTREMISTS NOW IN CONTROL

Constantinople, Feb. 26.—The extremist faction in the Turkish national assembly has gained the ascendancy for the time being, frustrating an attempt by Ismet Pasha and Mustapha Kemal Pasha to have the Lausanne peace treaty ratified said advices from the capital today.

While a definite vote upon the treaty has not been taken, a canvass among members of the assembly shows there is strong sentiment in favor of rejection of the treaty. In the debate allusions were made to the refusal of the United States senate to ratify the treaty of Versailles.

Soaps and Brushes

Bathing and the proper care of the skin bear directly on the question of health. Indeed, the supplies and accessories for your bathroom should be selected with just as much thought and care as those which go into the kitchen.

More and more people are learning this truth every day, and are finding that it pays to have the right soap or the right brush for each particular function in the daily duty of cleanliness.

Selecting "the right kind" is easy at THE REXALL STORE because we are always glad to assist you, and we carry an unusually varied and complete line of soaps, brushes, talcums, sponges and other bathing needs. Let us show them to you.

Whose Obligation Is This?

To realize the $8,000,000 Development fund, Ohio Wesleyan naturally depends upon the active financial support of the following groups:

- 1—Alumni, Alumnae and former students.
- 2—Members of the Methodist church;—every one of whom has a vital, personal interest in keeping this fountain of Methodism flowing.
- 3—Business men whose future business success depends upon the trained leadership of men and women such as Ohio Wesleyan produces.
- 4—Many friends of the University who appreciate the world's need of Christian Education and are willing to translate their sympathies into action.

You will find the interesting story of Ohio Wesleyan and her needs in new book entitled, "Build Yourself a Living Monument".

TRIANGLE SERVICES OPEN SUNDAY NIGHT WITH BIG AUDIENCE

The Triangle service opened with a large crowd, which taxed the auditorium of the Reformed Church, when Rev. R. E. Stewart, singer-evangelist, delivered a sermon on "Some Serious Facts About Revivals."

Some folks are afraid of revivals, but every age in the past has been placed in position for advancement by a revival of some sort," he said. "Revival is bringing back to life that which has begun to die."

Every time that Israel forgot God, God sent them a revival in the form of a new leader."

Mr. Stewart took several of the leaders of the Old Testament and showed how they were the revivalists of that day. Samuel, Elijah, Jeremiah. He then parenthetically interjected several pages from his evangelistic biography concerning the opposition to revivals as being of satan, and that opposition was a good sign that something was going to be done. He pointed out also how all the great denominations were the outgrowth of revivals.

"You folks object to revivals, that the converts don't hold out consider business failures; not all the grain planted grows, or takes root. You say that there is too much excitement. How about baseball and foot ball and stock market. I would rather have some little sensation rather than stagnation." Where there is life there is stir.

The chorus sang a special number. Mr. Stewart sang a solo, "Jesus Blessed Blessed Jesus." Rev. William H. Tilford read the scripture; Dr. V. F. Brown led in prayer. Mr. Middleton made the announcements.

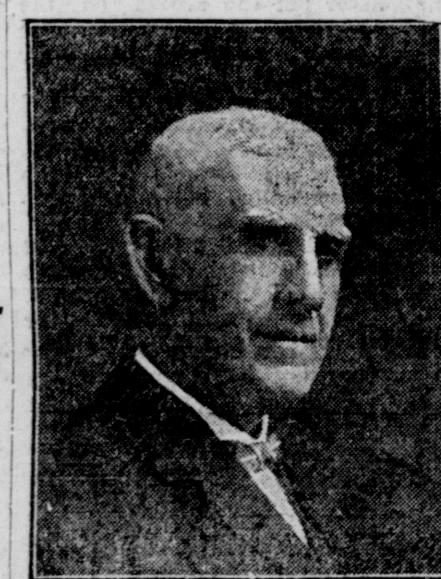

Rev. Tilford preaches Monday night; Tuesday evening, Rev. Middleton; Wednesday, Mr. Stewart; Thursday, Dr. Brown; Friday Mr. Stewart.

District prayer meetings in connection with the evangelistic campaign of the First Reformed Trinity, and the First Presbyterian Churches, will be held Tuesday at 10:00 a. m., to 10:15 a. m. at the homes of Mrs. Ed. Lightleiser, South Monroe St. Mrs. Linkhart, West Market St., Mrs. W. J. Oglesbee, North King St., Mrs. Charles McPherson, West Second St. At these meetings one of the pastors and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stewart will be present.

There will be children's services, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 4:00—Mr. Stewart.

Services for women only at 3:00 on the same days—Mrs. Stewart (Margaret Eavey).

SPEED RECORD IS SMASHED IN WEST

SETH W. BROWN

Los Angeles, Feb. 26.—Jimmy Murphy, champion race driver of 1922, began his campaign for the speed honors of 1923 by flashing across the finish line in yesterday's 250 mile classic in new record time at the head of a procession of racing cars, the like of which has never before been seen assembled together on a Pacific coast track.

Murphy's winning time was 2 hours, 9 minutes, 43 seconds, or an average of 115.8 miles an hour. The previous record was 114.6 miles an hour. Murphy drove a Durant special. Bennett Hill, in a McDonald special, finished second; Ralph De Palma, Duisenberg special, third; Eddie Hearne, Durant special, fourth, and Frank Elliott, in a Leach special, fifth. Of the 16 starters 10 finished.

Murphy's new record is just a little more than one mile per hour faster than the mark he set on the same track Dec. 3 last.

SAYS COMMON RED CLOVER IS SOWN

Columbus, Feb. 26.—C. J. West, state-federal agricultural statistician, announced that, according to reports from crop correspondents, 65 per cent of Ohio clover acreage is of the common red variety. About half of the alike in the state is sown alone, a recent report by West indicates, and one-half is sown in mixture. The total alike acreage is a little more than one-third of the common clover acreage. A little less than 10 per cent of the clover is mammoth red and 3 per cent is a fair average for sweet clover. These figures vary considerably in different parts of the state, according to the report, the alike acreage being somewhat greater in the northern section. The demand for soy bean seed will be heavier this year than last, the report says.

CHAPTER XVIII.

To both Dick and Ann their child was a wonder babe. They named him for her father, John Peabody Belden, but called him Jack. He was healthy, happy baby, with Dick's coloring, and Ann's sweet, firm mouth. As they bent over his crib when he slept, or watched him develop his cunning ways, they grew closer together again, as they had been when they were first married.

He was very little trouble and Ann had let the Chink boy go.

"We need to save for him now," she told Dick. "He'll have the ranch some day when we are old."

"That'll be a long time, Ann, and I don't want you to overdo," Dick replied, but Ann had her way. Wages were high, and help was wasteful.

Dick worked from morning until night, she would do her part.

Then too, Hessee had constituted herself almost a member of the family since the baby's arrival. Nearly every day saw her at the Belden ranch, holding little Jack, declaring she would teach him to call her name as soon as he could talk and helping Ann with her sewing. Some times Ann would say:

"I'm so happy I'm almost frightened, Bessie." Then they would both laugh at her foolishness.

Dick had not left the ranch for some time, but it was necessary for him to procure supplies and Ann made out her list both for the house and the ranch. She had no fear now in letting him go. He loved the boy too well to drink and forget anything.

She kissed him goodbye with a light heart, saying:

"You'll get home early, won't you, dear? And don't forget the rattle and other things for Jack."

"Just as if I could with them all written down at the head of the list!

Even the ranch has to take a second place now, you little beggar," He returned as he kissed them both.

Ann had not heard from her parents in two weeks, and was a bit worried; but she consoled herself with the thought that no news was good news, although she had watched for days for a letter.

The baby was asleep. The house was full of summer sunshine and silence. Ann finished her housework, then took her sewing and sat beside the crib, a paean of thanksgiving in her heart. Through the open door

she could see the lacy pepper trees

Dick had planned when he first bought the ranch. How hard he had worked. A tender smile played about her lips as she thought of him. Then the baby stirred and she fed and crooned over him.

The long bright day died to a close

Ann got a cold supper, ready against
